W

Louisa.

June, 1868— Nov. 1868

65–68

continued.

2nd Book 32/4

NEW BEDFORD

Free Public Library.

Number,

Access. No. 23511

PRESENTED BY

J. Smith & J. S. Allen.

[Log of Bark Louisa, 1865-68
Vol. 2, June 17 - Nov. 2, 1868]

FEB 1883
NEW BEDFORD
23511

23511

FEB 1933
NEW BEDFORD

Continued

Log of Bark Louisa R. W. Crapo Master

Wednesday June the 17 Commences with Strong breezes Steering N.E employed at various jobs about the ships saw a quantity of shinbacks middle Strong breezes latter the same Steering

Lat 20.38 N. E employed at various jobs Long 03.30 about the ships saw shinbacks

Thursday June the 18 Commences with Strong breezes Steering N.E employed at various jobs about the ships middle and latter Strong breezes Steering N.E employed at various

Lat 18.42 jobs about the ships one sail Long 03.28 and everal shinbacks in sight

FEB 1933

Friday June the 19 Commences with light breezes Steering N.by.W at sunset shortened sail, and luffed to the wind Steering N.E.by.E saw shinbacks and one sail saw a peice of a whaleboat middle and latter light breezes Steering N.by.W employed at various jobs about the ships saw a ships Steering to the

Lat 17.49 N.ward and saw a number Long 04.08 of shinbacks and porpuses

23511

Log of Bark Louisa R. J. Crapo. Master

Saturday June the 20 Commences with light breezes steering W. by. W employed at various jobs about the ship's sunset shortened sail and luffed to the wind. heding S. W one sail in sight middle light breezes heding to the S and by the wind latter light breezes steering W. N. W sent down the fore top sail Lat 19. 29 yard and took the iron work off of Long 04. 14 it several flinbacks in sight

Sunday June the 21 Commences with light breezes steering W. N. W employed fitting a top sail yard finished and sent it aloft at 4 P. M and bent the top sail middle light breezes heding to the S and W and W and Lat 16. 50 latter light breezes steering
Long 04. 56 N. N. W saw flinbacks
M Monday June the 22 Commences with strong breezes steering W. by. W at sunset shortened sail and luffed to the wind heding E middle light breezes latter strong breezes the island of St. Helena in sight bearing N. N. W we are employed at various Lat 16. 20 jobs about the ships
Long 05. 16 saw one sail

Log of Bark Louisa R. W. Crapo Master

Tuesday June the 23 Commences with strong breezes steering to the W'ard until 2 P.M. then to the N'ard sunset lost sight to the wind the island of St Helena bearing W by S distant 20 miles middle strong breezes heding to the E'ard latter strong breezes heding heding to the S and W'ard employed at various jobs about the ships the island of St Helena

Lat 16.01
Long

and one sail in sight

Wednesday June the 24 Commences with strong breezes heding S.S.W by the wind several shinbacks in sight at sunset the island bearing N middle strong breezes heding to the S'ard and W'ard latter light breezes steering N.E. by W employed at various jobs about the ships saw shinbacks and one sail

Lat
Long

Thursday June the 25 Commences with light breezes heding to the E'ard 3 P.M. wore ship heding S.S.W at sunset St Helena bearing N.N.E distant about 15 miles middle strong breezes heding S.S.W latter strong breezes heding to the E'ard employed at various jobs about the ships saw a number of shinbacks and sulphur bottoms St Helena bearing N.E distant 30 miles

Lat 16.35°
Long

Log of Bark Louisa R. W. Crapo Master

Friday June the 26 Commences with strong breezes bedring S. S. W by the wind employed at various jobs about the ship a number of sphinbacks in sight middle light breezes latter the same bedring to the N and E and employed at various jobs about the ship Lat 16. 32 one sail and a number of sphinbacks Long in sight St Helena in sight

Saturday June the 27 Commences with Light breezes bedring N. E by the wind employed at various jobs about the ship two sails in sight middle light breezes latter the same bedring to the N and E and employed at various jobs about the ship saw sphinbacks and Lat 15. 54 several sails saw a number of Long 05. 42 fish boats

Sunday June the 28 Commences with light breezes stood in and saw the ships at Anchor spoke a fish boat and stood off shore bedring S. W middle and latter light breezes 7 A M rose Spermwhales 8 A M towards the boats 11.30 A M the Larbod boat struck 12 A M took the whale to the ships viz Balena in shall of the whales several merchant ships in sight of St Helena bearing N. W distant 15 miles

Log of Bark Louisa R. W. Cross Master

Monday July 29th Commenced with light breezes employed cutting the whales Lay off & on the Bark Balena at sunset latched down and got supper and set boat crews watches middle light breezes latter the same employed cutting in a whale two sails in sight and a number of shinbacks St Helena bearing Lat to the S and W Ward
Long

Tuesday June 30th Commenced with strong breezes employed cutting in blubber and clearing away case Started the works at 3 P.M. middle and latter strong breezes middle bending to the East latter bending S.W employed boiling St Helena in sight bearing Lat W. S. W one sail in sight
Long

Wednesday July 1st Commenced with Thursday Ever strong breezes bending S.W employed boiling and takeing care of oil one sail in sight middle and latter strong breezes latter bending to the East until 12 O.M. Hove to the Ship bending to the S and W ward employed boiling oil Stood in and set the shipping lying to an anchor bar
Lat Long several ships out side

Log of Bark Louisa K. W. Crapo Master

Thursday July the 2 Commences with Strong breezes hauling to the East employed boiling 6 P.M. finished boiling boddy and commenced on the Latter the Island bearing S. W. distant about 2 miles middle Strong breezes employed boiling and Clearing the ship Latter Strong breezes steering for the island employed getting up the cables and bending the Anchors Friday July the 3 Commences with Strong breezes 2 P.M. came to Anchor employed coopering and stowing down oil Captain Crapo went on shore and entered the ship, a number of people from shore visented the ship middle and latter fine wether employed stowing oil and geting reddy for sail.

Saturday July the 4 Commences with fine wether employed coopering and stowing down oil middle and latter fine wether employed breaking out ground tier casks and preating. Clean forward and shucking some that is rotten

Log of Bark Louisa R.H. Crapo Master

Sunday July the 5 Commences with fine wether employed breaking out the ground to take fruit 5 P.M. Sent the ship boy the Doze middle Strong breezes with rain latter fine wether sent the Starboard watch on shore on liberty

Monday July the 6 Commences with fine wether several petty Officers from the Harpoon visitid the Louisa this afternoon middle and latter fine wether employed at various jobs getting reddy to take fruit

Tuesday July the 7 Commences with Strong breezes employed breaking out the ground and cleaning out the hole middle and latter blowing strong breezes employed taking on board fruit from the Balaena and stowing it down below

Wednesday July the 8 Commences with Strong breezes and equally wether employed stowing fruit
middle and latter fine wether
employed taking on board fruit and stowing it down we received 11234 gallons of oil from the Bark Balaena

Log of Bark Fousa R W Cross Master

Thursday July the 9 Commences with fine wether employed stowing down oil and so forth middle fine wether latter the same employed stowing oil

Friday July the 10 Commences with
fine wether employed stowing
off the hole and washing of the ship
middle and latter fine wether
employed washing of the ships in side and various jobs about ship

Saturday July the 11 Commences with fine wether employed washing off ship out side middle fine wether latter the same employed breaking out flush and mat-dent on shore 18 barrels of flush the Starbod watch on shore on liberty

Sunday July the 12 Commences with fine wether employed at various jobs about the ship middle fine wether latter the same as A.M. on the Starbod watch came on board 7 A.M. sent the Starbod watch on shore

Log of Bark Louisa R W Hopper Master

Monday July the 13 Commences with fine wether one watch on shore for liberty middle fine wether latter fine wether employed painting ships with one watch the other on liberty

Tuesday July the 14 Commences with fine wether employed painting ships out side middle and latter fine wethe employed painting ships out side and painting the after cabbin

Wednesday July the 15 Commences with fine wether employed painting ships sent on shore a number of barrels of Beef one barrel of Mush and received several tuns of potatoes

Thursday July the 16 Commences with fine wether employed at various jobs about the ships middle and latter fine wether

Friday July the 17 Commences with fine wether employed taking in wood and various jobs on board middle and latter fine wether employed at various jobs about the ships one watch on shore on liberty

Log of Bark Louisa R. W. Boyd Master.

Saturday July the 18 Commences with fine wethes employed at railroad jobs about the ship middle and latter fine wether employed getting redy for sea

Sunday July the 19 Commences with fine wether employed at railroad jobs about the ship middle and latter fine wether one watch ashore on liberty

Monday July the 20 Commences with fine wether middle fine wether latter the same employed getting redy for sea

Tuesday July the 21 Commences with fine wethes 5 P.M. Commenced to leave up the Anchor 6 P.M. sailed from our Anchorige middle and latter light breezes employed towing Anchors and cabled one tier in light

Wednesday July the 22 Commences with light breezes E.S.E employed at railroad jobs about the ship Sent on board Bk Janet of Westport middle light breezes latter the same saw the Janett boats chasing a right whale

Log of Bark Louisa R. H. Crapo Master

Thursday July the 23 Commences with light breezes bedring to the East employed at various jobs about the ship the Sunset in sight the Island bearing N. E distant about 30 miles middle and latter light breezes bedring to the East employed at various jobs about the ship saw a number of porpoises

Friday July the 24 Commences with light breezes bedring to the East employed at various jobs about the ship latter part middle strong breezes latter the same bedring to the East employed drawing yarns for spunyarn several sails in sight one of them a whale ship

Saturday July the 25 Commences with strong breezes bedring to the East employed at various jobs about the ship one sail in sight saw a number of porpoises middle and latter strong breezes bedring to the East and by the wind employed making spunyarn a number of sails in sight and a number of birds hawks and gannets at sunset St Helena bearing of distant about 90 miles

Log of Bark Louisa R.N. Capt. Smales

Sunday July the 26 Commences with Strong breezes veering to the Ward by the wind employed making Spunyarn Several sails in sight middle and latter light breezes veering to the Ward and East St Helena bearing W.S.W &
Several sails in sight

Monday July the 27 Commences with light breezes veering N.E by the wind Several sails in sight one of them a whaleman Sunset the Island bearing W distant about 8 miles middle light breezes latter the same veering to the East and East employed Veering ship again Several sails in sight

Tuesday July the 28 Commences with light breezes veering to the East and East employed veering ship again and painting the Starbod Boat Several sails in sight middle light breezes latter the same veering to the East and employed at various jobs about the ship
Several sails in sight

Log of Bark Louisa R. W. Cropp Masters

Wednesday July 29th Commences with light breezes Veering to the East by the Wind employed at various jobs about the Ship Several Sail's in sight Amsterdt — St Helena bearing W distant 25 miles middle Strong Breezes latter the same Veering to the East and Wind employed making Spunyarn Several Sail's in sight —

Thursday July 30th Commences with Strong Breezes Veering S. W by the Wind employed making Spunyarn and various other jobs about the Ship Amsterdt — St Helena bearing W. N distant about 15 miles middle Strong Breezes latter the same Veering full and by Veering to the East employed at various jobs about the Ship Several Sail's in sight

Friday July 31st Commences with Strong Breezes Veering to the S'ward and East Saw Several Sail's one of them a Whaleman called her to Balena St Helena bearing W.N.W. E at Sunset distant 15 miles middle Strong breezes latter the same Veering full and by employed at various jobs about the Ship Several Sail's in sight one Whaleman

Log of Bark Louisa R. H. Crapo Masters

Saturday August 1st Commences with Strong breezes heding to the S and W and employed at various Jobs about the ship saw and spoke the Bark Balena several times in sight middle Strong breezes latter light breezes heding S. W. & the wind employed at various Jobs saw one sail

Sunday August 2d Commences with light breezes heding to the S and W & W by the wind the Balena in sight saw Finbacks and Grampuses middle light breezes latter the same heding to the S and W latter heding to the S & E pm saw 2 Sperm whales 11 A.M. pm Toward the South this day ends in Chasing whales

Monday August 3d Commences with light breezes chasing Sperm whales 4 P.M. the Starbod boat struck a whale 9 P.M. took the whale to the ship the Starbod and Larbod boats got stove by the whale middle employed getting whale in gear up the falls stove and broke latter light breezes employed cutting off the whales head 12 oclock got it off and got dinner

Log of Bark Louisa R W Crapo Master

Tuesday August 4th Commences with light breezes employed relieving in the whales body & P.M. got it in middle light breezes & P.M. Started the works and commenced to boil Latter blowing strong breezes employed taking in junk and boiling saw several sperm backs and saw the Island

Wednesday August 5th Commences with strong breze employed boiling taking care and taking care of oil middle strong breezes latter the same heading to the E and by the wind employed cutting junk and boiling saw several sails one a whaleman the Island in sight bearing E.S.E

Thursday August 6th Commences with strong breze heading E by the wind employed boiling one sail in sight the BK Janet the Island bearing E.S.E distant 15 or 20 miles middle strong breezes latter the same heading to the N and E and employed boiling and taking care of oil several sails in sight and St Helena in sight

Log of Bark Louisa R. H. Craig Master

Friday August the 7 Commences with Strong breezes with Rain Squalls Veering to the S and S.W employed boiling mending Hoops boats and so forth at Helena Veering S.S.W at Sunset distant 10 miles middle Strong breezes latter the same with some rain employed boiling

Saturday August the 8 Commences with light breezes employed coopering casks to put oil in Spoke the B.R. Junet middle Strong breezes with rain latter Strong breezes veering to the S and employed stowing down oil one sail in sight and the island in sight

Sunday August the 9 Commences with light breezes veering E.S.E, E by the wind employed stowing down oil middle Strong breezes veering S.W by the wind hauled the foresail Hay latter Strong breezes veering S.S.W by the wind saw several Whaleboats and saw a large Branch 5 miles off on the weather bow

Log of Bark Louisa R. H. Capt Bradley

Monday August 10th Commences with strong breezes bearing S.S.W by the wind saw several whimbrels and saw a large white water middle strong breezes latter the same bearing to the E and and W and latter strong breezes bearing to the E and employed repairing Lat 14 29 the fish and fish davy and mending Long 06 36 the Harbird boat saw whimbrels

Tuesday August 11th Commences with strong breezes bearing E of E
employed at various jobs about the ships saw several whimbrels middle strong breezes latter the same bearing to the E and through the night latter bearing to the S.W Lat employed at various jobs about Long the ships saw whimbrels

Wednesday August 12th commences with strong breezes bearing to the East 3 P.M. wore ship bearing S.W
employed at various jobs about the ships saw a number of whimbrels
middle strong breezes latter the same bearing to the E and employed washing off the ships Lat 14 01 and various other jobs Long 06.15 saw several whimbrels

Log of Bark Louisa H. H. Cox Master

Thursday August the 13 Commences with Strong breezes heding E.N.E by the wind employed at various jobs about the ships saw several whale boats middle Strong breezes heding to the Ward latter light breezes heding S.W employed heving top mast and Lower rigin in and various other jobs about the ships

Lat
Long

Friday August the 14. Commences with Strong breezes heding S.W by the wind employed heving up Lower rigin & Pm wore ships heding to the Ward middle light breezes Latter light breezes heding to the S and W and by the wind employed cleaning Anchors and painting them and at other jobs about the ships

Lat
Long

Saturday August the 15 Commences with light breezes heding to the S and W and employed at various jobs about the ships middle light breezes heding to the S and latter light breezes heding to the S and W and Ward employed scraping masts and washing the ships out side saw several whale boats and one sail

Lat
Long

Log of Bark Louisa R. H. Crapo Master

Sunday August the 16 Commences with light breezes steering S E employed at various jobs about the ships saw pinnacles and saw one sail middle light breezes veering to the Lat 17.27 S and latter light breezes with Long 03.04 rain steering S. E saw pinnacles

Monday August the 17 Commences with strong breezes with rain steering S. E 6 P.M. shortened sail and tacked to the wind veering S by E & middle light breezes veering to the S and with 2 A.M. veering to the W and latter light breezes Lat 17.22 employed at various jobs about Long 04.46 the ships saw pinnacles

Tuesday August the 18 Commences with strong breezes veering W. by N by the wind employed at various jobs about the ships 2 P.M. shorten sail and hove the ships to with the foretopsail aback middle light breezes veering to the E and by the wind latter light breezes steering N. E. E employed at various jobs about Lat 17.10 the ships saw a large number Long 05.24 of pinnacles and tropick birds

Log of Bark Louisa R. H. Cryer Master

Wednesday August 19th Commences with light breezes steering S. E. by S employed at various jobs about the Ships boat obtain barks and boat the land bearing S. W. & distant about 30 miles at midnight light breezes hauling to the East latter light breezes steering S. S. E employed at various jobs about the Ship one sail in sight St Helena bearing S. by E distant 30 miles

Thursday August 20th Commences with light breezes steering S. W employed at various jobs about the Ship at St Helena in sight distant about 15 miles middle light breezes hauling to the East and N and by the wind latter light breezes hauling S. S. W employed at various jobs about the Ships boat Sundry sail and land

Friday August 21st Commences with light breezes hauling S S W & by the wind employed at various jobs about the Ship middle strong breezes hauling to the S and land N and latter strong breezes hauling to the S employed at various jobs two one sail

Log

Log of Bark Louisa K H Capt Thrasher

Saturday August the 22 Commences with strong breezes steering W. & employed making Spunyarn and at various other jobs about the ships bow and Hoisted the B K Janet and bow shinbacks middle strong breezes heding to the East by the wind latter strong breezes steering W.W. & employed making Spunyarn and at various other jobs about the ships bow shinbacks

Sunday August the 23 Commences with light breezes steering W. & employed
at various jobs about the ships bow one sail and a number sailors
middle strong breezes heding
to the East latter light breezes heding S.W by the wind one sail in sight and the Island in sight bearing W. &

Monday August the 24 Commences with light breezes heding S.W 6 P.M saw ships heding E by S. of bow shinbacks middle light breezes heding to the East latter light breezes steering W. & employed at various jobs about the ships bow shinbacks and the Island
in sight bearing W. &

Log of Bark Louisa R. H. Lloyd Master

Tuesday August 25th Commences with light breezes bearing E by S employed at various jobs about the ship saw a number of whales middle light breezes bearing to the S and E latter light breezes bearing S. W employed at various jobs about the ship several sails in sight at Helena bearing N. E

Wednesday August 26th Commences with light breezes bearing S. W employed at various jobs about the ship saw whales middle light breezes bearing to the S. W latter light breezes bearing to the East employed at various jobs about the ship saw whales and the island in sight

Thursday August 27th Commences with light breezes bearing to the E and by S employed at various jobs about the ship saw a number of whales middle light breezes latter the same saw a large Greenland whale off the Larboard bow lowered the boats and chased him to windward this day ends with pleasant weather the whale saw a steamer

Log of Bark Louisa R. W. Crapo Master

Friday August the 28 Commences with fine weather bin boats in chase of a low thick whale chased them until 5 P.M. and then gave up the chase and started for the ship returned to the ship at 7 P.M. the whale going in to the S.W. middle light breezes latter S.W. latter the same ending the same employed at various jobs about the ship saw one sail

Saturday August the 29 Commences with light breezes ending to the S and W and employed at various jobs about the ship saw a number of shipping middle light breezes latter the same ending to the S and E and latter ending S.W employed at various jobs about the ship saw one sail and saw shipping

Sunday August the 30 Commences with light breezes ending S.W employed at various jobs about the ship 7 P.M. wore ship ending E.S.E middle light breezes latter the same ending to the S and E and at Helena in sight bearing W.S.E one sail and saw the of shipping in sight

Log of Bark Louisa R.N. Cap.n Amantes

Monday August 31st commences with light breezes bedring E.N.E by the wind saw a number of whin backs at anchor at St Helena bearing S.E distant 25 miles middle light breezes bedring to the E and latter light breezes bedring S.S.E employed at various jobs about the ship saw two sails and saw whinbacks ant the island in sight

Tuesday September 1st commences with strong breezes bedring to the S and S.E employed at various jobs about the ship middle light breezes bedring to the S.E latter light breezes bedring E.S.E employed at various jobs about the ships several whinbacks in sight

Wednesday September 2nd commences with light breezes bedring to the S and E employed at various jobs about the ship at anchor at St Helena bearing S.S.E 35 off middle light breezes bedring to the E and latter light breezes breezes steering S and employed at various jobs about the ship saw several sails

Log of Bark Louisa R. W. Crapo Master

Thursday September the 3 Commences with light breezes hedring S. by W the wind continued at various jobs about the ship saw a number of sail one of them a whaleman to the Island in sight middle light breezes hedring to the Ward latter light breezes hedring E.N.E employed at various jobs about the ship saw one sail and saw Shrimbacks and to Island

Friday September the 4 Commences with light breezes hedring S.S.W employed at various jobs about the ship saw one whaleman and saw several Shrimbacks middle light breezes hedring to the E and E and latter strong breezes hedring S.W employed at various jobs about the ship saw and spoke to ship Minerva Smyth and gamed with her

Saturday September the 5 Commences with light breezes hedring to the E and and E and continued at various jobs about the ship gaming with the Minerva Smyth middle light breezes latter strong breezes hedring S.W employed at various jobs about the ship saw several sails one of them the Minerva Smyth

Log of Bark Louisa R. H. Craig Master.

Sunday September 6th Commences with Strong breezes Veering S. W employed at various jobs about the Ship Saw two Sail in middle and latter Strong breezes middle Veering S. W' latter Veering to the S'ard and E'ard Several Sails in sight

Monday September 7th Commences with Strong breezes Veering to the S'ard and E'ard Several Schoonbacks and one Sail in sight — middle Strong breezes Veering to the S'ard and E'ard latter Strong breezes Veering to S'ard and E'ard employed at various jobs about the Ship Saw Several Sail's and five Schoonbacks

Tuesday September 8th Commences with Strong breezes Veering N. E employed at various jobs about the Ships Saw Several Sail's and a number of Schoonbacks middle light breezes steering for St Helena latter light breezes Lying off and on at St Helena Fortain Craig Seen on Shore

Log of Bark Louisa R Y Crew masters

Wednesday September 9th Commences with Commences with light breezes lying off and on at St Helena Captain Crapp on shore came off at 6 P.M. and Brought a Pasenger middle light breezes steering West latter light breezes steering N.W.
employed at various jobs about the ship at St Helena bearing S.E.

Thursday September 10th Commences with strong breezes steering W by N employed at various jobs about the ship middle light breezes steering N.W. by W
latter light breezes steering the same employed taking down and painting Spars saw a number of pilot boats

Friday September 11 Commences with light breezes steering Lat N.W. by W employed at various Long jobs about the ship
middle light breezes steering N.W. by W latter light breezes steering the same employed taking down and painting Spars and bending new Foremast rigging

Log of Bark Louisa R. Boyd Master

Saturday September the 12th Commences with Strong breezes steering S.W. by S. employed stowing up our mast rigin Tarring and Seaming saw a number of Porpoises middle Strong breezes steering S.W. by W. latter Strong breezes employed Tarring and painting and at various other Lat 12.44 Jobs about the ships saw one sail Long 11.34

Sunday September the 13th Commences with Strong breezes steering S.W. by W. employed at various Jobs about the ships saw one sail and saw Porpoises middle Strong breezes steering S.W. by S. middle & latter steering the same Lat 11.27 saw a number of Porpoises Long 13.50

Monday September the 14th Commences with Strong breezes steering S.W. by W. saw Porpoises struck two and cut them both saw Porpoises middle Strong breezes steering S.W. by W. latter Strong breezes steering the same employed painting and repairing Lat 10 0 & Long 15.52 the main sail saw Porpoises

Log of Bark Louisa K. W. Crapo Master

Tuesday September 15th Commences with strong breezes steering W. N. W. employed at various jobs about the ship middle strong breezes steering W. N. W. latter strong breezes steering the same employed tarring down Lat 09.36 and at various after jobs about Long 18.08 the ship saw a number of porpoises

Wednesday September 16th Commences with strong breezes steering W. N. W employed at various jobs about the ship middle strong breezes steering W. N. W latter light breezes steering the same employed tarring and painting and at various after Lat 09.00 jobs about the ship saw porpoises Long 20.12

Thursday September 17th Commences with light breezes steering W. N. W employed at various jobs about the ship saw porpoises middle light breezes steering W. N. W latter light breezes steering the same employed fitting the spanker boom and gaff and at various after jobs about Lat 09.52 the ship saw porpoises Long 21.34

Log of Bark Louisa R. H. Crapo Master

Friday September the 18 commences with light breezes Steering S.E. by S. employed at various jobs about the Ship saw a number of Grimbark and Sulpherbottom middle Strong breezes Steering S.E. by S. latter light breezes Steering the same employed Scraping the Mizzen mast and at various other jobs about the Ship

Lat 06.27
Long 23.36

Saturday September the 19 commences with light breezes Steering S. by E. employed at various jobs about the Ship middle Strong breezes latter the same Steering S. by E. employed Scraping Blacks painting Spars and at various other jobs about the Ship saw one Sail

Lat 04 05
Long 24.46

Sunday September the 20 commences with light breezes Steering S. by E. employed at various jobs about the Ship middle and latter light breezes Steering S. by E. one Sail in sight

Lat 01.52
Long 26.02

Log of Bark Louisa R. H. Crapo Master

Monday September the 21st Commences with light breezes Steering W. by S. W untill 4 P.M. then Steering W. W. W. saw one sail Steering in to the W. W. middle light breezes Steering W. W. W.
Latter light breezes Steering Lat South 12 the same employed at various Long 27 20 jobs about the ship.

Tuesday September the 22nd Commences
with light breezes Steering W. W. by W. employed at various jobs about the ship: middle light breezes Latter the same Steering W. W. by W. until 8
A.M. then Steered W. W. W.
Lat North employed rattling lower rigging Lat 00 58 and at various other jobs
Long 29 20 about the ship saw four porpoises

Wednesday September the 23rd Commences with light breezes Steering W. W.
W. employed rattling down rigging
middle light breezes Steering
W. W. W. Latter light breezes
Steering the same employed rattling the Lower rigging Lat 02.42 and at various other jobs about Long 30.26 the ship saw one sail

Log of Bark Louisa R. H. Crafts Master

Thursday September the 24 Commences
with Light breezes Steering N. E. by E. employed rattling and fitting up the rigging one Sail in sight Middle light breezes with rain Squalls latter light breezes Steering E. by S. employed rattling topmast Lat 03.57 rigging and fitting up Long 31.45 the rigging around the Ships

Friday September the 25 Commences
with Light breezes Steering N. E. by E employed at various jobs about the rigging middle and latter light
breezes Steering E by S
employed tarring Lat 05.28 and rattling the rigging
Long 32.24 and at various other jobs

Saturday September the 26 Commences
with Light breezes Steering E by S employed at various jobs about the Ship middle light breezes Steering E by S latter light breezes with rain Steering to the E and by the Lat 06 26 wind employed Long at various jobs about Ship

Log of Bark Louisa R.W. Crapo Master

Sunday September the 27 Commences
with light breezes steering N. by. W employed at various jobs about the ship middle
light breezes with rain
Lat 08.14 Latter light breezes steering
Long 33.26 N. by. W saw a shoal of porpoises

Monday September the 28 Commences
with light breezes steering N. N. W by the wind saw porpoises middle strong breezes from the E. heading N. N. W latter strong breezes heading N. N. W Lat 09.26 employed shifting casks Long 34.36 to from ship

Tuesday September the 29 Commences with strong breezes heading N. N. W employed at various
jobs about the ship middle strong breezes with rain Thunder and lightning
latter light breezes steering N. N. W employed at Lat 11.00 various jobs about the Long 35.34 ship saw porpoises

Log of Bark Louisa R. H. Crosby Master

Wednesday September the 30 Commences with Light Breezes Steering N. N. W employed at various jobs about the Ship. and rigging middle Strong Breezes latter the same Steering Lat 12.30 N. N. W employed at Lon 19 26 52 various jobs about the Ship

Thursday October the 1 Commences with Strong Breezes Steering N. N. W employed at various jobs about the Ship Saw Porpuses middle Strong Breezes Steering N. N. W latter Strong Breezes employed repairing Rigging
Lat 14.50 and at various other jobs
Long 37.50 about the Ship Steering N. N. W

Friday October the 2 Commences with Strong breezes Steering N. N. W employed at various jobs about the Ship Saw porpuses middle Strong Breezes Steering N. N. W latter Strong Breezes Steering Lat 17.11 N. N. W employed at various Long 41.00 jobs about the Ship

Log of Bark Louisa R. W. Craigmile

Saturday October 3rd Commences
with light breezes steering S. S. W. employed at various jobs about the ship
middle strong breezes steering S. W. S. W. latter strong breezes steering the same Lat 18.25° employed at various jobs
Long 42.57 about the ship one sail in sight

Sunday October 4th Commences with with strong breezes steering S. S. W employed
at various jobs about the ship middle strong breezes steering S. S. W. latter strong breezes Lat 21.40 steering the same Long 44.37 one sail in sight

Monday October 5th Commences
with light breezes steering
S. S. W. wind from the East
middle light breezes steering
S. S. W latter light breezes
steering S. S. W employed tacking and bailing the ship
Lat 23.16 and at various other jobs
Long 46.04 about the ship

Log of Bark Louisa R. W. Crapo Master

Sunday October the 6 Commences
with light breezes steering N. N. W. employed tarring the lower rigging and at various other jobs about the ship
middle light breezes steering N. N. W. Latter light breezes steering the same Lat 24.40 employed tarring and tarring.
Long 94.25 the lower and top mast rigging

Wednesday October the 7 Commences
with light breezes steering
N. N. W. employed at various
jobs about the ship
middle light breezes steering
W. N. W. by the wind Latter light breezes Lat 25.01 steering N. W. employed Long 48.58 tarring and tarring down

Thursday October the 8 Commences with strong breezes with rain squalls employed tarring and tarring down steering N. W. by N.
middle strong breezes
steering N. N. W.
Latter strong breezes steering the same employed Lat 26.48 cleaning ship work
Long 30.26 and at various other jobs

Log of Bark Louisa R W Capt Brantes

Friday October the 9 Commences with strong breezes steering N.E. by N employed cleaning and painting iron work about the ships light breezes the middle part of the night latter part of the night and day strong breezes with rain Lat 25.23 squalls employed at various Long 62.07 jobs about the ships

Saturday October the 10 Commences with strong breezes steering N.E. by N employed at various jobs about the ships middle blowing strong with rain and lightning latter strong breezes with rain squalls steering N.E. by N employed Lat 30.03 breaking out for water
Long 54.12 and at various other jobs

Sunday October the 11 Commences with strong breezes steering N. by employed at various jobs about the ships middle strong breezes with rain squalls steering N.E. by E latter light breezes steering N.E. by N. hoisted 11 O.K. Pm shook the reefs out Lat 32.00 of the topsails set the top Long 66.38 Galyant sails and bore up steering East

Log of Bark Louisa R. H. Crafts Master

Monday October the 12 Commences with light breezes steering N. W. by W. & P.M. took in the fore royal & studding sails and furled the Eight sails middle light breezes heding W. by W. by the wind latter light breezes steering W.N.W. employed Lat 32.56 knocking water casks
Long 57.38 and at various other jobs

Tuesday October the 13 Commences with light breezes steering W. by W employed knocking water casks middle light breezes heding to the Westward latter strong breezes W.W by W employed taring cleaning Lat 33.41 iron work and at various Long 58.08 other jobs about the ship

Wednesday October the 14 Commences with strong breezes steering W.W. by W. employed at various jobs about the ship saw one sail and saw a jumper middle strong breezes heding W.W. & P.M. took in the fortopsail latter blowing a moderate Lat 34.25 gale employed at various Long 59.20 jobs about the ship
A.M. set the fore topsail

Log of Bark Louisa R W Crosby Master

Thursday October the 15th Commences with strong breezes Veering S. W. by employed at various jobs about the ship one man off duty with a sore back middle blowing strong breezes veering to the West latter strong breezes veering Lat 35.30 S. W. by W employed at various Long 60.40 jobs about the ship

Friday October the 16th Commences with strong breezes veered W. S. W. & employed at various jobs about the ship middle light breezes veering to the East latter light breezes steering W. S. W. by W
Lat 36.59 employed at various jobs
Long 57.38 about the ship one sail in sight

Saturday October the 17th Commences
with strong breezes steering W. by S. & under cutter to the wind veering to the West one sail in sight middle strong breezes veering to the West & N. N. W close reefed the main topsail and furled the fore sail set & furled the main topsail latter blowing a gale of wind with a very heavy sea veering to the West & N. W. At the Lat 37.44 wind shifted and began to moderate
Long 60.25 saw one sail

Log of Bark Louisa R H Crosby Master

Sunday October the 18 Commences with Strong breezes Veering to the East wind from the N ward employed at various jobs about the Ships 1 P M Set the fore sail and single reef main top sail middle blowing a moderate gale & Close took in the fore and close reefed the main top sail Lat 36.32 Latter blowing a gale from the Long 60.40 N ward Saw one sail

Monday October the 19 Commences with Strong breezes 2 P M Set the fore and main sail and sent men to the main yard
one sail in sight
middle light breezes veering to the N ward Latter light breezes veering to the E ward employed at various Lat 36.30 jobs about the ships
Long 61.45 one sail in sight

Tuesday October the 20 Commences with light breezes veering to the E ward by the N ward
employed at various jobs
middle and latter light breezes veering to the N ward part of the Lat 37.24 time the other part veering Long 62.06 to the E ward and E ward

Log of Bark Louisa R. H. Crapo Master

Wednesday October the 21st commences with light breezes with squalls Latter to the S'ard and W'ard employed at various jobs about the Ship's Gear and Spoke a Norwegian from Honduras bound to London Captain Crapo boarded him middle light breezes with rain squalls Latter to the S'ard and W'ard Latter light breezes steering W.S.W.
Lat 37.18 employed at various jobs about the Ship
Long 62.46 one Sail in sight

Thursday October the 22nd commences with Light Breezes steering W.S.W employed Scraping Lower masts and painting the forward cabbin middle blowing strong with rain squalls steering S.W. by W latter blowing a gale from the S.W Lat 37.45 S. at 8 P.M. took in the Foresail Long 63.50 and close reefed the main top sail

Friday October the 23rd commences with strong gales Latter 8 P.M. it broke the wind shifted and we handed S.S. at 4 P.M the gale began to moderate middle blowing very hard from the S.W. at 8 P.M. took in the foresail and main top sail Lat 37.25 latter more moderate Long 64.08 employed washing Ship inside

Log of Bark Louisa R. Crapo Master

Saturday October the 24 Commences with Strong breezes employed washing ships and painting the Cabbins and at various other Jobs about the ships. middle Strong breezes heading to the S and W and Latter light breezes Steering W. employed painting the Lat 37,27 Cabbins and at various other
Long 67.36 Jobs about the ships

Sunday October the 25 Commences with light breezes steering W. employed painting davits and deck houses middle light breezes steering W. Latter light breezes steering the same Saw Sperm whales to Windward the boats hauld to the wind but struck the bow boat had a whale in tow at 12 oclock Cut it the waist boat Lat 37,58 whale to the ships Schools gone to Long 65.40 the Windward

Monday October the 26 Commences with Strong breezes employed cutting in a whale 5 P.M got Whale in and cut up 3 P.M let fog whales middle light breezes heading Lat 38.09 to the E and Latter light breezes Long 65.17 employed boiling a whale

Log of Bark Louisa R W (Cross) Master

Tuesday October the 27 commences with strong breezes from the ct. W employed Bailing 2 P.M. had a rain squall had to Cook down 4 P.M. started the works and Cooled down again at 6 P.M. an after squall middle Moderate strong in squalls 4 ct. M finished boiling Lat 37.55 latter light breezes employed washing Long 65.35 ships oil Laid in light

Wednesday October the 28 commences with light breezes employed at various jobs about the ship Rove new main top gallant sheets and new fore and main lift and reef tackles
middle light breezes steering West latter strong breezes Lat 37 32 steering W.C.W employed Long 66.40 painting ships side

Thursday October the 29 commences
with strong breezes steering W.C.W employed painting ships two sails in light
middle strong breezes with rain thunder and lightning latter light breezes steering W and W by S employed painting and at Lat 37.41 various other jobs about the ship Long 67 28 several sail in sight

Log of Bark Louisa R H Crapo master

Friday October the 30 commences with light breeze heding W by S/ by the wind employed painting Ship one dair in light middle light breze heding to the W and by the wind latter strong breze heding W by S/ W employed painting Ship Lat 37.35° Long 69.12 liberal dair in light

Saturday October the 31 commences with strong breze heding S/ W by the wind employed painting Ship middle light breze steering full and by heding S/ W/ fyle latter light breze steering S/ W employed at various jobs about the Ship Lat 38.04 Long 72.20

Sunday November the 1 commences with light breezes steering S/ S/ W employed at various jobs about the Ship scraping and oiling the masts and bowsprit middle strong breezes steering S by W latter blowing strong from the South 1 P.M. made Block island 11 P.M. came to anchor at Newport

Log of Bark Louise K Y, Capt Bradley

Monday November the 6th Cyrus at Newport took the anchor and started for New Bedford in charge of the pilot came to Anchor at 2 P.M. Pm and the crew went on shore left the ship with the ship keeper

Log of B K Louisa

1865-68

Vol. 2. Jun-Nov '68